

Dear Sir,

Le Sart 18 July 83
(Southern Belgium)

When I met Bhagwan Shree Rajneesh more than six years ago, little did I know that he would put my life upside up. He is an extraordinary being, and any country should be proud and honored to have him as a guest, more than that, he is a blessing wherever he goes.

I have been an assistant-professor of translation and interpreting in a Brussels college for many years. As a translator and interpreter I have lived and worked in Africa, America and Asia, but in all my travels, I have never met anyone who would shine as bright and clear as Bhagwan Shree Rajneesh.

Sincerely

Godelieve
