To Whom it may concern:

Bhagwan Rajneesh is one of the most brilliant philosophers and educators of this country. I have followed his world-wide work for many years. His brilliant discourses, lectures and books have made a great contribution to mankind in the fields of psychology, religion and environmental issues.

I apply his philosophy to my personal life as well as my many businesses and it has brought about excellent positive results in both. We are privileged to have a man of this stature in our country as he espouses all the ideals of our founding fathers.

His work is one of the positive forces in the world for world peace.

Sincerely,

W.A. Galt
