To whom it may concern

I came to know Bhagwan through a friend of mine, who told me about great experiences she had while doing some of his meditations. She gave me a book he had written.

As soon as I had finished reading it, I wanted more. It was brilliant - the most intelligent and rebellious scripture I've ever read.

I got in contact with one of his meditation centers, where I could feel his presence pretty strong. I became a disciple - Samyasa soon. My whole consciousness started to change.

I had a Master - I was a disciple. It didn't matter so much, that He wasn't there personal - but I was hungry for this man who was so different than anybody else.

His teachings about love, worship and meditation really turned me on to come to this community now - as I've been there and really felt his presence and the whole energy around, I can say, that this is a completely different spot than anywhere else in the world.

His presence and his silence all around. It's the very nature of this place - it's the very essence of the worship too

It inspired me to so many beautiful things - I've never had the guts before, but this place made it happen. I felt so much freedom and love around here. For me there was never a reason to talk about it - now as I hear, it could be difficult for Bhagwan to stay in this community, - I want you to know that this place could only happen through His presence - I personally don't think that intelligence, love or Prayer - as they happen here all the time, make any noise

Sincerely
