To whom it may concern.

I graduated from the University of Witwatersrand in South Africa with a first class honors degree in mathematics, and won a scholarship to study at the University of London, England, where I obtained an M.Sc. in mathematics. I have worked for IBM as a systems engineers and with Univac as a senior programmer in systems design.

While in London in 1974, I came to hear about the world-renowned religious teacher, Bhagwan Shree Rajneesh. I found His approach to mathematics, and, in fact, to every other subject upon which he has spoken, to be refreshing and totally relevant to modern man - a synthesis of East and West, of the material and the spiritual, which no other spiritual leader alive today has succeeded in achieving. We are indeed fortunate to have such an enlightened being living among us today.

Sincerely,

Ann Mc Carthy
