About five years ago, I've heard for the first time in my life something about Bhagwan Shree Rajneesh, who is my spiritual leader and my religious master. Once I started to read his books, to listen to his tape-discourses, I just couldn't get enough, because I really felt that He's an man of immense wisdom and a man of great love.

In January '81, I went to Poona and it was just incredible to see him. To live in presence infects my life in a way which I've never experienced before. At the same time I started to participate in therapy groups. Participating in these groups, listening to his discourses and his presence made me feel so centered and so much more loving towards myself and towards other people.

In May 81 Bhagwan Shree Rajneesh stopped his daily discourses and from now on we just sit in silence with him for one hour each day. For me it was a real heart to head communion.

He's not an extraordinary religious leader. Now I'm here for a visit in Rajneeshpuram, Oregon, and what's happening here is just amazing. We're going to built a city, a completely new kind of city, where people live in harmony with nature, where people live together in a more loving way, where people have the greatest chance of life, to live in the presence of an enlightened master.

It's a great chance for every body, to come and see in what a different way a city can function.

There's no other place in the world where anything similar is happening.

I've been working as a travel agent and I was really travelling a lot in my life, but I never saw anything like Rajneetpuram.

I'm so thankful, that I met Bhagwan and I'm so grateful to live in His presence.

Sincerely yours

Ma Prem Sampurna
