To Whom it may concern,

My name is Philip Byrt and my Sanyas name is Satyadeva. I have been a disciple of Bhagwan Shree Rajneesh for nine months. I became a Sanyassin or disciple after Bhagwan entered his period of silence and before I saw him in person.

I feel that my connection with Bhagwan, which I first felt in June 1982 with the aid of his books and tapes, is as strong and profound as anyone else's who may have been with him when he was speaking and giving discourses in person.

I feel that my experience of Bhagwan and his energy is very powerful and no way limited by his silence and may actually be enhanced by his silence.

I feel much gratitude and love for Bhagwan for the love he gives and for the space that his love and energy creates around the world for people to transform and be closer to each other. I personally have experienced much self-acceptance and a deep opening up to other people.

Bhagwan's work through silence has meant that he is not limited by time or distance, and much gets generated through his disciples around the world who do not need to be in close proximity to him.

Bhagwan in his silence most powerfully carries out his religious work.

Thankyou,

Yours Sincerely,

Philip Byrt.

(Satyadeva).
