

Amsterdam 4 aug. '8.

To whom it may concern.

I'm living in the dutch backfield of Sachana Rajnesh Ashram in Amsterdam. We're living with about 60 people, amongst them 15 children. It feels really like a big family.

As a member of a team of handymen, carpenters, painters e.g. I am daily worshipping on different jobs; outside the ashram to earn money as well as inside in our commune, making our home beautiful.

The opportunity of worshipping and living with samyagnas is every day a tremendous joy for me. Visiting Rajneshpuram last year and this year feels like really coming back home. I have lived and worshipped with Bhagwan for 2 years in Poona.

Immediately when I saw them,

felt him, something deep inside me,
relaxed and started bubbling of joy and recognition.

This is my basic feeling ever since I came across him on my way through India.

yours sincerely

A. F. A. Romeyn.
