

To whom it may concern:

I became a sannyassin in November 1981. I've never seen Bhagwan, but I could feel his presence very clear. Before I took the jump to get a sannyas-paper, I already read a few books and I was at the Orange Full Moon Festival in Amsterdam. And after that my rest was gone. I saw myself looking to the red cloths in the shops. In the night I only heard and saw Bhagwan and sannyassins. I felt my need to wear red cloths and having a mala very clear. Even with the little information I got about Bhagwan I felt that this was my way I wanted to walk on, my way home.

And now after almost 2 years and after seeing Bhagwan twice, I am only glad and happy that I made this decision. So much love I feel for Bhagwan, and so much love I got from him. Bhagwan is love for me.
