To whom it may concern

To find Bhagwan Shree Rajneesh for me was like feeling myself at home, like sitting down and relaxing after a long run.

I was running much in my life through so many strong experiences, but since I have found Bhagwan I understood that all this running was nothing else than searching desperately something deep, something spiritual, a more concrete and more sincere connection between me and the things around me.

Since I have found Bhagwan and been His disciple, slowly, slowly I start to discover all this. This marvellous man has become for me the reference of my life, and I believe this is so for all those who could see Him in the last Satsang given at Rajneeshpuram in July. It was an experience of a silent meeting, a deep communion, a big love between Bhagwan and His disciples.

Yours faithfully
