To Whom It May Concern,

I got to know bhagwan Shree Rajneesh through reading one of His books which was introduced on a radio program.

On April 23rd, 1983 I became His disciple. I took sannyas because while I was reading His books and experiencing His meditations, I felt I wanted to live in the way He talked about. I wanted to connect with Bhagwan while He was alive.

Now the more I open myself to Bhagwan, the more closely I can feel Him, and I can live my life creatively. It means being open and accepting whatever happens in my life.

I want to be more and more open and closer to Bhagwan as He exists now, and I believe that's the path for my inner growth.

Yours sincerely,
